I. Welcome Message from the Headmaster

Dear Student

We welcome you to Kolej Yayasan UEM. We hope very much that your time with us will be happy and successful and that it will help you to fulfil both your academic and personal aspirations.

Although it was founded only in 1998, KYUEM already has a tremendous record of success with its students. Many of them have gone on to leading universities across the world where they have gained further academic distinction. These experiences have allowed them to set out on interesting and rewarding careers. We are confident that they will play significant roles in Malaysia's future development and that some of them, at least, will become contributors to decision-making on a global stage.

KYUEM is not just about preparing you for the world of work. We hope very much that you will develop as individuals here. We want you to become independent thinkers who will value education as a liberating experience, one that will take you beyond your current comfort zones. We want you to develop powers of creativity. We want you to become persuasive communicators, able both to lead and to play your part in a team.

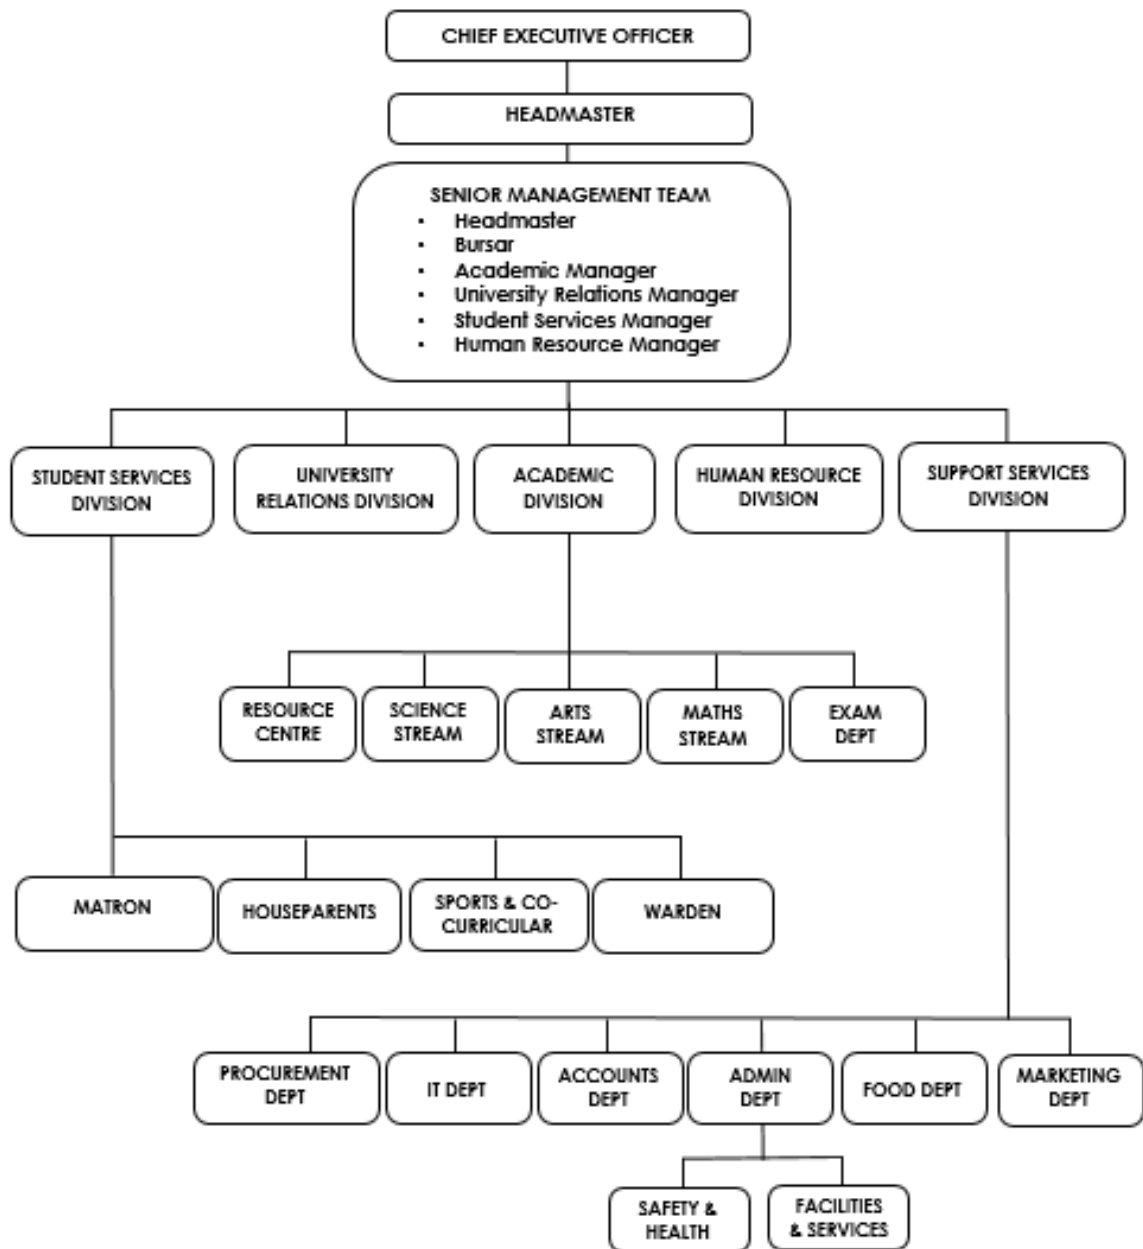

We set a lot of store by involvement in co-curricular activities. It is in these areas that you will develop the interpersonal skills that will make your lives truly successful and happy. You will also develop through them a vitally important quality, that of resilience. All the evidence from the worlds of psychology, from the biographies of very successful people, seems to show that what determines who will truly succeed in life is how well a person copes with setbacks. Everyone needs to be able to learn from experience.

We also hope that you will emerge from KYUEM as good people. We have a very happy community here and it works so well because we behave towards each other with consideration and respect. We do not have many formal rules and we hope that the concept of treating others as you would like them to treat you means that this situation will continue into the future.

Make the most of your time here. Get involved. Forge friendships. Work with your teachers. We all want what is in your best interests. Have fun and enjoy it.

All the best!

1. Introduction

Kolej Yayasan UEM (KYUEM) students enjoy the freedom to pursue their intellectual and personal interests without interference, provided that their actions do not conflict with the rights of others. The college thus requires students to conduct themselves in accordance with the values of a progressive and developing Malaysia and the policies of this college, showing courtesy and consideration to others at all times.

The main aim of the college is to offer an excellent all-round education to students aspiring to obtain entry into reputable and prestigious universities at home and abroad.

KYUEM is committed to the following:

- i. To provide for the academic, social, personal and cultural development of each student.
- ii. To provide a rich extra and co-curricular environment that identifies a student's potential, aptitude and talent in a caring and purposeful environment.
- iii. To provide for the development of good citizenship with an emphasis on responsibility, leadership qualities and exemplary conduct.

The aim of this handbook is to provide you with much of the information you will need to live and work within the college environment. It will be an essential companion in the months ahead.

2. Academic

2.1 TEACHING AND LEARNING ETHOS

The college believes that each student should be treated as an individual. Teaching and learning strategies will be enquiry-based and students will be encouraged to work out solutions for themselves rather than relying on 'spoon feeding'. To develop these research skills, students will have access to a fully equipped Resource Centre that includes a well-stocked library, multimedia equipment and IT facilities.

While A Level study provides educational depth in specific subjects, students are expected to acquire the breadth of knowledge necessary for entry into the top universities. A full English programme has been developed to improve language and communication skills, and a General Studies programme provides breadth of study to supplement the 'A' and 'AS' level courses you will be pursuing.

2.2 SUBJECTS OFFERED

The college currently offers A Level courses in Accounting, Biology, Chemistry, Geography, Economics, English Literature, Further Mathematics, History, Marine Science, Mathematics, Physics and Psychology. The subjects offered may vary according to intake.

Students can choose almost any combination of subjects but will be advised to select a combination that will help them gain a place at university and further their career ambitions. Most students take a minimum of three A Level subjects, but some may take four if they can reasonably cope with the extra load.

All students take General Studies and, in line with universal university expectations, academic breadth is provided through IT and Communication Skills as well as Advance Subsidiary (AS) courses. The programme also includes a substantial English programme leading to an IELTS qualification.

KYUEM is very concerned with the teaching of moral values. Therefore, every student will have lessons either in Islamic Studies or Moral Studies as well as Malaysian Studies, the latter applicable only to local students.

2.3 EVALUATION

KYUEM has clear policies on homework, tests, examinations and reports. Homework is set frequently during the week in each subject and must be submitted on time. Homework will normally be returned to the student at the next lesson after its submission. Class tests will also be set on a regular basis, and both class tests and homework will be formally assessed. Tracking grades are taken from three assessments: quizzes, tests and practical tests.

Internal examinations will be set twice a year, at the end of each semester. A full report at the end of each semester is sent to parents/guardians and sponsors. The report will not only contain comments from all subject teachers but also include remarks from tutors. Students are expected to conduct themselves according to rules laid down by the UK examination boards selected by KYUEM.

2.4 TUTORIAL SYSTEM

The tutorial system is an important part of the pastoral organisation of the college. The college tutorial system has two distinct strands, pastoral and academic, which are complementary parts of an integrated whole that addresses every aspect of student performance. Tutors are responsible for students' pastoral care and will also monitor their tutees' academic performance.

3.3 PASTORAL CARE

KYUEM has a House system. Each student and member of the teaching staff will be assigned to a house. Currently, KYUEM has four houses: Diamond, Garnet, Sapphire and Topaz.

The House programme is a system of monitoring the overall welfare of students. It focuses on each student's progress in terms of academic achievement as well as other aspects of a student's personal development. It is student-centered. The system is not only intended to assist students in achieving their short-term goals but also provides support and guidance in longer-term planning.

Counselling is another important element of the House system. It provides an opportunity for students to seek guidance in overcoming problems of a personal nature. Tutorials are conducted once a week.

Good communication and interaction are vital for students as part of their education. The House system promotes and encourages sharing of experiences and ideas. Tolerance, understanding and co-operation are only

3.5 SPORTS AND CO-CURRICULAR DIVISION

Co-curricular as well as recreational activities are very important in producing champions with all-round qualities. The KYUEM co-curriculum is designed to fulfil this objective by expecting all students to be involved in at least one sport and one club or society.

As part of its commitment to breadth in learning, the college offers a wide-ranging programme of sports and co-curricular activities. All members of the college, both staff and students, are given the opportunity to be involved. Students are encouraged to participate in a number of different sports.

The sports offered by the college include football, rugby, volleyball, netball, basketball, tennis, badminton, table tennis, martial arts and swimming. Students also can learn to dive. Friendly matches are arranged against other colleges and outside clubs.

5.14.1 Wireless Network Services

Wi-Fi Network Rules and Regulations

The wireless network is not meant as a replacement for the wired network and is not to be used as a primary network connection. The wireless network is meant to extend the wired network for simple uses in areas where wired network access is unavailable. Users are expected to avoid using applications that will use large amounts of network bandwidth. These include servers and file-sharing applications.

There are other electronic devices that use the same 2.4GHz frequency as the KYUEM wireless network. These devices include

Version	5.0	KYUEM Student Handbook	Page 29 of 47
Date	November 2016

2.4GHz cordless phones, microwave ovens, X10 wireless cameras, Bluetooth devices, and other wireless LAN equipment. Devices using this technology can cause intermittent failure and loss of service.

The following policies are in addition to the Network policy. Actions that are detrimental or inappropriate when accessing Internet resources include but are not limited to those listed in the Wireless Networking section below.

- a. Users may not extend or modify the network in any way. This includes adding access points and installing bridges, switches, hubs or repeaters. The college reserves the right to remove or disable any unauthorized access points.
- b. Any attempt to break into or gain unauthorized access to any computers or systems from a wireless connection is prohibited.
- c. Running any unauthorized data packet collection programmes on the wireless network is prohibited. Such practices are a violation of privacy and constitute the theft of user data.
- d. We reserve the right to limit bandwidth on a per connection basis on the wireless network, as necessary, to ensure network reliability and fair sharing of network resources for all wireless users. At the moment, some applications that consume larger bandwidth like YouTube, Torrent and other similar applications are shaped at specific bandwidths to avoid traffic congestion especially during heavy downloading.
- e. Any effort to circumvent the security systems designed to prevent unauthorized access to any KYUEM wireless network may result in the suspension of all access and an appearance before the appropriate disciplinary board.

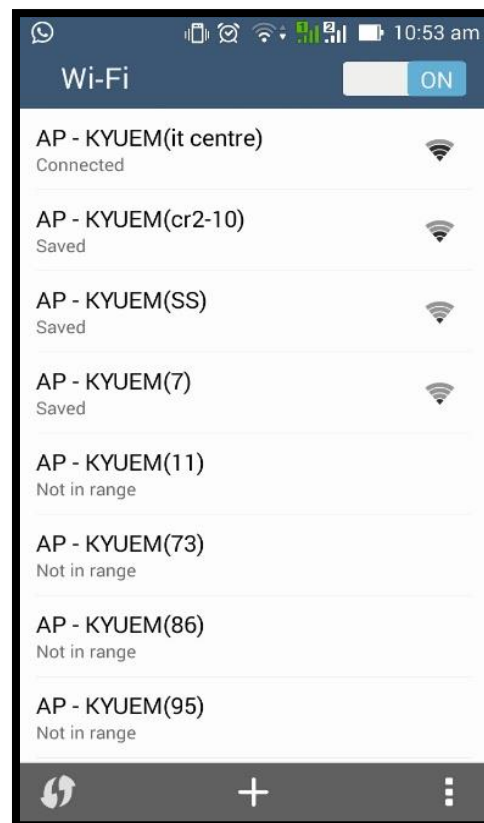

Should you encounter any problems accessing the WIFI, contact any of the IT staff for further action.
